Clever Bert Shewmaker Hunting Deer, Bear, Etc., In The Far West.

CAMP COFFEY, OSAGE NATION, I. T., Oct. 1st.—We left Cleveland Tuesday and traveled over sweeping prairie, thick forests and majestic divides. At 6 P. M., on leaving the main trail we found ourselves on the banks of Turkey creek. It was one grand panorama. The creek was plainly seen like a long thread of silver in a lovely cloth of green. The rapture of the water, the cooing of the doves was like some painted picture; some well told tale of love. We could see the black buzz playing and while some of the boys put up the tents and built a camp fire, Bob Lyons and myself caught enough fish for breakfast. The campers consisted of the following: L. P. Coffey, wife, daughter and son, of Cleveland, O. T., Bob T. Lyons, Orville, Mentzer and W. B. Einwaechter, of Pawnee, O. T., M. T. Sloan, our faithful guide, and a French cook, H. P. Shewmaker, wife and daughter, and Miss Della Coffey, of Moreland, Ky. The outing was given in honor of the last named parties and I take this means of thanking them through the columns of your paper. The trip was planned and managed by Mr. Coffey and his good wife, who did not stop at trouble nor expense to make it what it was—a success.

After a good night's rest we arose with the first peep of Old Sol and I will never forget the music of wild birds while standing on the banks of Turkey creek. We could hear flocks of wild turkeys calling their young and getting ready for their day's picking in the forest. The first thing worthy of note was a joke played on us boys by a lively man. I don't remember any name only "Slim." He was to take one of the teams back home, and about 15 minutes after he left camp he returned very much excited, saying: "Boys I ran right into a big flock of wild turkeys before I struck the main trail." Every boy grabbed his gun and four of us piled into a surrey and told him to lead the way. We soon caught on to his racket. He could not find his way out of the woods and came back with the turkey yarn in order to get the boys to help him find the main trail. The first day was spent in hunting, fishing and taking pictures by the boys and girls. At night we built a big log heap and the crowd was entertained by Prof. Lyons, Mentzer and Einwaechter, who gave us several laughable dramas.

The second day was spent by most of the boys hunting deer. There were eight deer seen in all, but as the law is not out it would not be advisable to say how many we killed. Bob Lyons was the most successful "deer hunter" in the bunch. There were two of them in camp which occupied most of his time. On leaving camp Friday morning we were forced to empty several pounds of nice fish back into the creek as we had more than we could take care of. This has certainly been an enjoyable visit, but such pleasure can not last always. We leave for Kentucky Wednesday. This has been the longest and most enjoyable vacation I have spent in my 16 years' service with the Q. & C. railroad and I am now ready to fall into line, much improved in health.

Full Of Tragic Meaning

Are these lines from J. B. Shumons, of Casey, Ia. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything, but nothing would relieve it, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At G. L. Penny's, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, Mo and 21 Trial bottle free.

Lee sued Jack Chinn to recover $2,000 in a horse deal. As Chinn was a non-resident it became necessary to levy upon such property as he owned in this State. Sheriff Hesterberg attached horses said to belong to Chinn in the stables of Pasig & Tipton, at Coney Island. The horses were sold for about $4,000, and the money was taken possession of by the Sheriff. Mrs. Chinn claims that the horses were her property.

SOME SEASONABLE ADVICE.

It may be a piece of superfluity, advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all druggists.

BENEFIT TO MANKIND.

One of the Greatest Discoveries of the 19th century.

There is nothing in the way of a discovery in the nineteenth century that has proved of greater benefit to mankind than that of two eminent French chemists, Mergues and Gautier by name, who discovered a way to separate the medicinal curative elements, of which there are about 50 different kinds in the cod's liver from the oil, and give to modern medicine all the tonic, body-building and curative properties of that grand old remedy cod liver oil, unencumbered by the oily, greasy part, which science had proved of no value whatever, either as a food or medicine. Thus they produced Vinol.

Vinol is guaranteed to contain in a highly concentrated form all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil, actually taken from fresh cods' livers, and wherever old fashioned cod liver oil or emulsions will do good, Vinol will do far more good—for being without oil, it is delicious to the taste, easily assimilated and won't upset the weakest stomach.

Vinol tones up the digestive organs, creates a hearty appetite, makes rich, red blood and creates strength for old people, weak women, puny children and after sickness, and for all pulmonary troubles it has no equal.

So strong is our faith in Vinol that we freely offer to return money in every case where it fails to give satisfaction. Penny's Drug Store.

THE Department of Agriculture reports that from 75 to 90 per cent. of the corn is safe from frost, and the rest will be in another week. Secretary Wilson adds as the result of his own observation that the reports of enormous crops are not exaggerations. In the Dakotas the small grain crops are the best for six or seven years, and in half a dozen of the Northwestern States the corn crop is the best ever known. The total corn crop of the country is estimated at the unprecedented figures of 2,700,000,000 bushels. The farmers' prosperity will make the whole country further prosperous.

THE grand jury of Fayette has again urged the necessity of a hospital at the Houses of Reform, and adds that the crowded condition of the institution demands an enlargement of the buildings. It joins the board of trustees in the recommendation that the Legislature appropriate $50,000 for these purposes and certified a copy of same to be sent to Gov. Beckham with a request that he suggest the appropriation in his message to the Legislature. It is hoped that the Legislature will make a sufficient appropriation to relieve the distress of this laudable institution.

"I WOULD rather be John D. Rockefeller, divested of his wealth and with his lovable personality, than any of the crew, saints or sinners who are attacking him," says Dr. D. K. Pearsons, of Chicago. Can it be possible that the doctor is a beneficiary of some of Rockefeller's "tainted coin"? Surely not; Dr. Pearsons just admires the oil magnate because he is of "lovable personality"—so he says.

IMMEDIATELY on the announcement that John D. Rockefeller had paid over his gift of $10,000,000 to the general educational board comes the further announcement that the Standard Oil Co. has made an advance in its prices. Could Not be Better.

The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Milford, Va., who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by all druggists.

The horse that has completed more than half a century of life is in fairly good flesh, and is fed on bread baked for his benefit, with an additional ration of sugar each day. His owner is proud of him and money would not tempt him to make a sale. It is said that all the signs of great age are present. His coat has not been shed for several years, and his muscles have lost their power to such a degree that his ears lop like unto those of a hog.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known travelling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by all druggists.

For Sale Privately.

Great Closing-Out Sale.

We have rented a business house, now nearing completion, in Corbin, Ky. which we expect to occupy at an early date. This stock consists of not only the Cream of Dry Goods, such as Silks, Satins, Fine Woollens, Whistings, Fine Table Damasks, Underwear, Hosiery, Outings, Etc., Etc., but also contains the largest assortment of hand-printed Japanese, Chino and Bric-a-brac Novelties ever shown in this section. In addition to the above we have a 5c and 10c department that is now loaded with good, useful money savers. This will be our last opportunity to supply the wants of our friends and customers and we deem it necessary to further remind you of the character of merchandise you now have an opportunity to purchase at sacrifice.

Owing to the short stay we have in your midst we are compelled to make this Strictly A Spot Cash Sale to One and All, and we ask those who have already made little tickets to please settle.

BARLAND SINGLETON, SEPT.

IN MEMORIAM.

Little Mary Elizabeth Spratt died Sept. 29. It is hard, so hard to realize little Elizabeth is dead. Only 11 short months was she spared to brighten our lives. The loss of one whose presence was such a joy can be realized only by those whose hearts have been made desolate by the presence of death; but we know she is now sweetly sleeping in the arms of Jesus, for she has gone where sorrows can not come. Her spirit, pure and spotless as the white winged dove, wings its way through paradise, beckoning to us to come. Oh, thou art happy, 'tis we alone are sad. Sleep softly then, for we will come and greet thee by and by.

The spring will come, the daisies bloom Upon her little bed And softly will the robins sing Above her sunny head.

But in the sleep that has no dreams Shall rest nor heed their call, Her soul has shaken off the dust, The grave received its all.

The mysteries of life and death Her spirit pure has tried With senses new many scenes untold With angels she's allied.

She's safe within her father's home, She's standing at the gate, And, oh Father I pray the way's not long

Darling Elizabeth can wait. FATHER AND MOTHER.

The Half-Back Auction.

"What am I offered for this prime New England half-back?" asked the auctioneer briskly of the assembled managers and alumni. "Fresh from his prep. school! A fine line buckler! Follows his interference like a leech! Weight, 170 stripped! Come now!"

"Free tuition during his whole college course," cried the manager of the Yaleward eleven.

"Free tuition," repeated the auctioneer, "during his college course. Do I hear free board? Remember, gentlemen! He has a record of sixty touchdowns in one season. Do I hear it?"

"Free tuition and board for four years," shouted the Princetonian manager, "and we'll toss in the college agency for Doper's cigarettes."

The auctioneer waved his gavel in preparation for the final bang. "Tuition, board and an agency," he shouted. "Do I hear free clothes? Remember! Halfbacks are scarce! This one is guaranteed for four full years and a post-graduate course. Going at tuition, board and an agency. Going I am astounded—going, go—"

There was a rustle in the throng. A breathless man burst through. "Free tuition, board and an agency," cried the newcomer, "free clothes, rent free in Vanderghout Hall, free text books, free trip to—"

"Gone!" shrieked the auctioneer. "He's yours. What name?"

"Manager Hale University. Last June by graduating we lost our whole back field and six of the linemen. The honor of our alma mater is at stake." "Report for practice," he said to his purchase, "next Saturday in the gym lot."—Puck.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. Secretary Shaw has notified his Iowa friends that he will resign Feb. 1, and again that great and good man, John W. Yerkes, is mentioned for the succession. We very much fear that the commissioner of internal revenue is working his press bureau too much overtime.—Frankfort Journal.
